AGED TO PERFECTION

Montréal is a city for the senses, and Pullman satisfies all five. Don't confuse this wine bar for a pub or a restaurant—though tasty tapas are served—because, here, wine is the star. Find a seat and don't be shy for suggestions—every waiter is a sommelier and the focus is on rare and hard-to-find bottles. Inside, the combination of leather and exposed brick complements the complexities of the wines.
